1. Mandate

The Pay Equity Office is a key partner in Ontario's employment and labour system which enables individuals to access the labour market and exchange their skills and talents at a fair rate of compensation. Our work focuses on women, work and gender gaps. We have a particular interest in helping women to achieve economic well-being through pay equity. We are also focused on gaining an understanding of gender inequality and discrimination so that this can be remedied.

The Pay Equity Commission (the Commission) was established by section 27 of the Pay Equity Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.P.7. Its purpose is to redress gender discrimination in the compensation of workers employed in female job classes in Ontario and to ensure 'equal pay for work of equal value'.

The Commission consists of two separate and independent bodies: The Pay Equity Office (PEO), headed by the Commissioner, and the Pay Equity Hearings Tribunal (the Tribunal), headed by the Chair. Both the Commissioner and the Chair are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

Section 33 of the Act sets out the specific responsibilities of the PEO:

- (1) The Pay Equity Office is responsible for the enforcement of this act. R.S.O. 1990, c. P.7, s. 33 (1); 1993, c. 4, s. 20 (1).
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Pay Equity Office,
 - (a) may conduct research and produce papers concerning any aspect of pay equity and related subjects and make recommendations to the Minister in connection therewith;
 - (b) may conduct public education programs and provide information concerning any aspect of pay equity and related subjects;
 - (c) shall provide support services to the Hearings Tribunal;
 - (d) shall conduct such studies as the Minister requires and make reports and recommendations in relation thereto;
 - (e) shall conduct a study with respect to systemic gender discrimination in compensation for work performed, in sectors of the economy where employment has traditionally been predominantly female, by female job classes in establishments that have no appropriate male job classes for the purpose of comparison under section 5 and, within one year of the effective date, shall make reports and recommendations to the Minister in relation to redressing such discrimination;

The Minister of Labour, Immigration, Training and Skills Development represents the PEO and the Tribunal in Cabinet and its Committees, in the Legislative Assembly and before Committees of the Legislature.

The Minister is accountable to the Legislature for the PEO's and the Tribunal's fulfillment of their mandates, and their compliance with statutes and government administrative policies. The Minister is also responsible for the review and approval of their Business Plans and Annual Reports.

This Business Plan presents the planned activities and accompanying key performance indicators for the Pay Equity Office. It has been prepared in accordance with the Agencies and Appointments Directive and the Guide to Developing Business Plans for Provincial Agencies, June 2020.

2. Planned Activities

In our 2023-24 fiscal and programming year, the PEO will continue to carry out its core statutory mandate, as outlined above, of enforcing the act by monitoring and responding to complaints, and by offering public education and information programs, all guided by the renewed strategic plan.

2.1. Vision, Mission and Guiding Principles

In 2021-22, the PEO team carefully developed and adopted a new Vision, Mission, and Guiding Principles through an iterative, collaborative process.

Vision: Make the world a more equitable place for women to work, live, and thrive.

Mission: Closing the gender wage gap.

Guiding Principles:

Listen First

Seek first to understand and genuinely respect others' perspectives.

Serve with objectivity and empathy

Serve one another and the public with intent and awareness.

Welcome the new and different

Seek effective and innovative approaches to deliver our work.

Grow together

We are resilient and overcome hurdles together while keeping our sights set on a better tomorrow.

Engage with passion

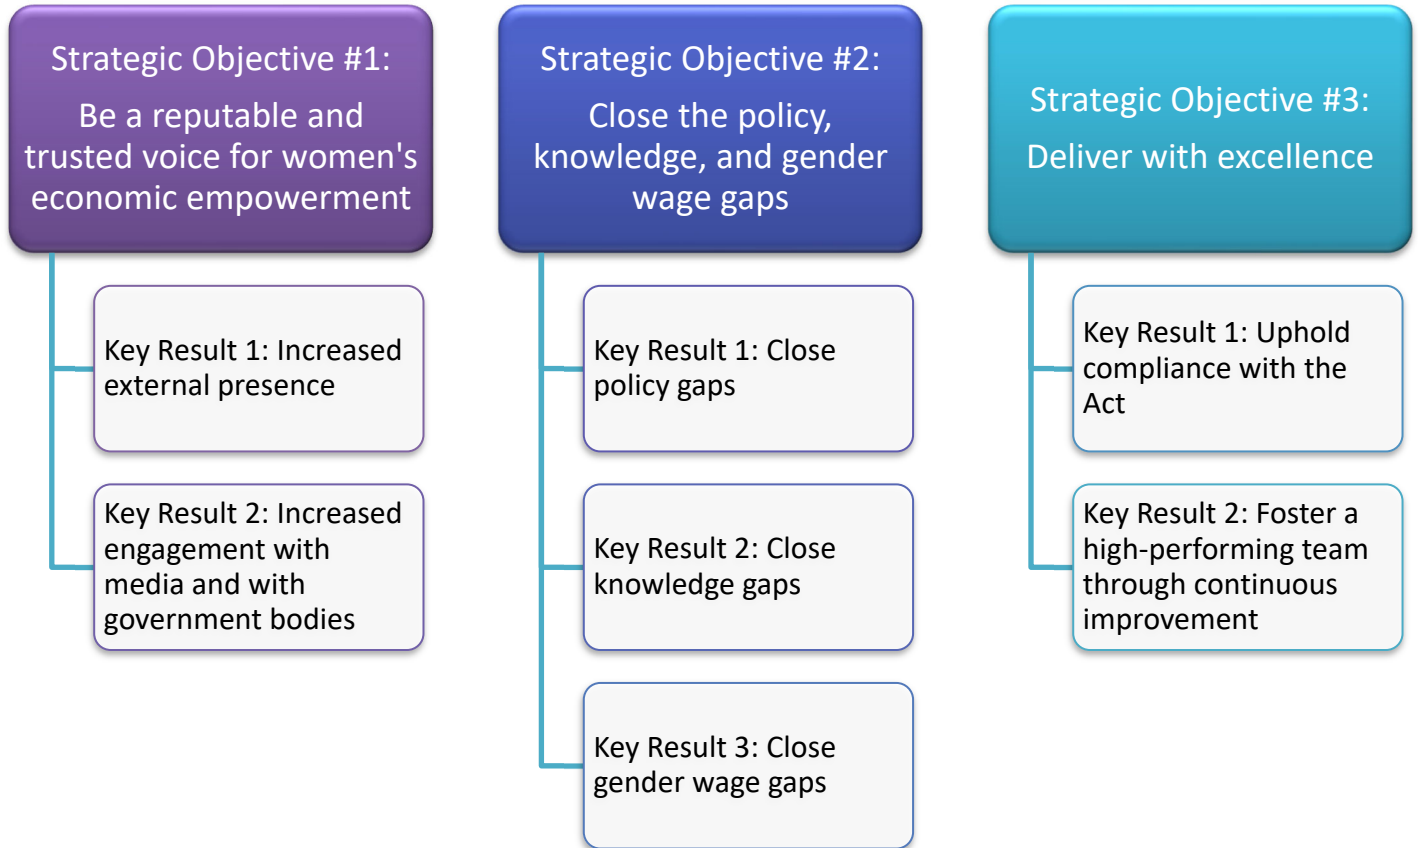

Our dedication to our mission is apparent to all.

Demonstrate leadership

We show others the way.

2.2. Strategic Objectives and Key Results

The PEO team defined three strategic objectives to guide its activities from 2021 to 2024. Defined key results for each objective help us know whether we've achieved our objectives.

3. Objectives, Key Results, and Performance Measures

In 2023-24, the PEO will report on achievements against its Objectives and Key Results (OKRs). The careful reader may note some modifications made to some targets as compared to the PEO’s 2022-23 Business Plan. While it is generally advisable to maintain as much consistency from one year to the next in order to evaluate progress, it is equally advisable to revise measures to take into account lessons learned from experience and external changes that affect the PEO. The PEO has endeavoured to strike a careful balance between these two principles, and has made minor adjustments accompanied by footnoted explanations.

³ The figures in this table are provided on a preliminary basis by MLITSD. Since the deadline for agency business plans is earlier than Treasury Board's annual budget planning cycle, the figures in this table should be checked against Ontario's Expenditure Estimates.

4.2. Human Resources

The PEO consists of 23⁴ Full Time Equivalents (FTEs). The Commissioner is the sole Order-in-Council appointee.

⁴ This figure is provided annually by the Ministry.
